RHDG awarded 2-year contract by City of San Jose

April 2008

The San Jose Department of Planning has awarded a 2-year contract to Riezebos Holzbaur Design Group (RHDG).

RHDG is assigned with branding the Department through graphic design and marketing pieces appropriate for San Jose, which is the tenth largest city in America and the fastest growing city in the western United States. Assignments will include the creation of logos, advertisements, signage, web design, and collateral design.

The Planning Department is responsible for San Jose's strategic growth. The board fosters economic development, with the goal to protect and improve neighborhoods, provide a range of housing options, maintain a strong downtown area, preserve open space, improve the transportation network, and direct growth to appropriate areas.
