Cengage books RHDG for 11th straight year

January 2010

Cengage has assigned their Sociology and Criminal Justice lists to Riezebos Holzbaur Group (RHDG) for an 11th straight year.

Since 1999, RHDG has been honored to manage these lists, which encompass 25 to 30 titles annually. The RHDG team is responsible for the management of the design, creative strategy, photo research, file construction, and final files, while making sure the projects stay on schedule and within budget.

*Titles include best-selling texts such as The Basics of Social Research, by Earl Babbie, How It's Done: An Invitation to Social Research, by Emily Stier Adler and Roger Clark, Statistics: A Tool for Social Research, by Joseph F. Healey, Race and Ethnic Relations, by Martin N. Marger, and The Social Organization of Work, by Randy Hodson and Teresa A. Sullivan.*

A world leader in textbook publishing and custom online learning solutions, Cengage maintains over a dozen imprints. The company is based in Stamford, Connecticut, and has operations in 40 countries.
